*Vienna is still considered the music capital of the world. It is a city of refined tastes, grace, style and unmatched artistic accomplishments. For a thousand years, Vienna was the capital of the far-flung Holy Roman and Hapsburg empires. Prague is one of the most enchanting cities in Europe. It was under Charles IV during the 14th century that Prague briefly became the seat of the Holy Roman Empire — virtually the capital of Western Europe — and acquired its distinctive Gothic imprint. Prague escaped serious wartime damage and is considered one of the most beautiful cities in Europe today. Mozart claimed that no one understood him better than the citizens of Prague, and he was only one of several great masters who lived or lingered here.

Wednesday July 5, 2006 Prague

The town owes its illustrious past to silver, discovered here during the 12th century. Sightseeing includes St. Barbara's Cathedral (Kutná Hora's masterpiece and a high point of the Gothic style in Bohemia), Mintner's Chapel, Little Castle (once part of the town's original fortifications), Vlassky dvur (an Italian Court - the old mint), St. James Church and other highlights. Return to Prague for dinner and overnight.
