Chi-Ming Tseng, Percussionist, Pianist

Chi-Ming Tseng is a senior at Queens High School for the Sciences at York College. His musical journey began at a very young age when he started learning piano. During middle school, Chi-Ming, under the supervision of percussionist Chi-Ching Grace Lin, was introduced to snare drumming solo. Shortly after, Chi-Ming began to play a myriad of percussion instruments including drum set, xylophone, bells, and timpani. He joined Youth Orchestra, CYCNY in 2009 and has performed in its four consecutive Annual Concerts at Alice Tully Hall of Lincoln Center during 2010-2013, and numerous Charity Concerts at Nursing Homes. In addition, he participated in a concert tour with the orchestra to Japan and Taiwan in 2012. Chi-Ming Tseng has an innate interest in music and continues to learn and play music.

Yun-Ping Tseng, Pianist and Flutist

Yun-Ping Tseng is a sophomore at Townsend Harris High School at Queens College. She started learning piano at age of six, and flute at age of eleven. She is active in many musical activities in her school, such as the school band and the chamber music club. As a member of Youth Orchestra, CYCNY, Yun-Ping has had the opportunity to perform in Four Annual Concerts at Lincoln Center from 2010-2013, which showcased her several flute solos. She also traveled with the orchestra to perform concerts in Japan and Taiwan in 2012. Currently, she is learning piano with Ms. Chi-Ching Grace Lin and flute with Mr. Kenneth Chia.
